many among them are members of a Moslem youth organization [redacted]

[redacted] It is suspected that propaganda material of this organization aimed against the present Yugoslav regime is distributed in Yugoslavia [redacted]

[redacted] and the UJB offers heavy rewards for any information on this subject. Sarajevo has a total of approximately 3,000 to 4,000 former professional men who were firm in their refusal to acknowledge the present regime, and who are now virtually starving. [redacted]

5. The fighting spirit among the population under the present regime is at a low ebb. The peasants express themselves in favor of mobilization, not because they wish to fight, but because they want weapons for an eventual coup against the regime. Reportedly, there is not one recruit from Bosnia whether Orthodox, Moslem, or Catholic who does not state that in case war should break out, he would either abandon his unit or kill his commanding officer. As a consequence, Western radio reports that 30 of Tito's divisions will fight any possible attack by the Cominform reportedly appear absurd to numerous Yugoslav listeners.

6. It is estimated that there are several thousand guerrillas in Bosnia. They belong to three religions, but each religious group operates independently. In general, the guerrillas are in hiding during the winter season. There have been no cases of attacks by them on government authorities in recent months.
